

CAREER

FOREPERSON/SITE SUPERVISOR

They are the construction supervisors! They oversee and manage construction sites, ensuring smooth operations and timely project completion. With their experience and organisational skills, they coordinate tasks and supervise construction teams.

WHAT DOES THIS JOB INVOLVE?

Team leadership

Supervising and leading construction or site teams

Work scheduling

Planning and organizing work schedules and tasks

Quality control

Ensuring work meets quality and safety standards

Materials management

Managing the supply and use of materials

Safety oversight

Enforcing safety protocols and regulations

Communication

Relaying instructions and updates to workers

Problem solving

Addressing issues and resolving on-site challenges

Reporting

Documenting work progress and reporting to management

SALARY EXPECTATIONS

Low $77,800

Median $157,200

High $218,000

RECOMMENDED TRAINING

CERTIFICATE III (TRADE QUALIFICATION)

CERTIFICATE IV IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT PRACTICE

DIPLOMA OF BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION (MANAGEMENT)

HOW DO I GET INTO THIS CAREER?

Five years of relevant onsite experience, usually as a qualified tradesperson, combined with a Diploma level qualification. Further study is also viewed as beneficial.