

CAREER

RAILWAY TRACK WORKER/PLANT OPERATOR

Railway track workers / Plant operators are the experts in rail construction and maintenance! They operate specialised machinery and equipment to build and maintain railway tracks. With their precision and knowledge, they ensure safe and efficient train operations.

WHAT DOES THIS JOB INVOLVE?

Machine operation

Operating specialised railway track maintenance equipment

Track maintenance

Conducting maintenance and repair work on railway tracks

Inspections

Inspecting tracks for wear, damage, or obstructions

Safety protocols

Adhering to safety guidelines during operations

Equipment maintenance

Performing routine maintenance on machines

Troubleshooting

Diagnosing and resolving equipment issues

Collaboration

Working with other railway maintenance personnel

Documentation

Maintaining records of machine operation and maintenance

SALARY EXPECTATIONS

Low $76,600

Median $110,800

High $190,300

RECOMMENDED TRAINING

CERTIFICATE II IN RAIL INFRASTRUCTURE

SAFETY ACCESS THE RAIL CORRIDOR

CERTIFICATE III IN RAIL INFRASTRUCTURE

HOW DO I GET INTO THIS CAREER?

A Rail Industry Worker card is mandatory. The Rail Industry Worker program meets regulatory requirements and complies with national rail safety laws.